Capt. Crawford's company is now stationed at Danville, Lieut. Andrews' at Peoria and Lieut. Murphy's at Chicago. Capt. Crawford's picture is shown in the newspaper story in conversation with Col. Franklin A. Deniscn, commander of the regiment.

The history of the regiment's growth is interesting. Starting with an organization of 700 men to which of 2400 men.

Most of the recruiting has done recently, and the strength of the retiment has gone up by leaps and bounds because the colored men believe there is a real chance to get to Europe and do some fighting. The regiment is composed of the highest class of men available. Many of its members are college and university graduates, representing Illinois, Northwestern, Michigan, Wisconsin, Tustegee, Beloit, Wabash. Har-

Fiske and Texas. The regiment was formed more than 20 years ago and was taken into the service as a national guard unit under Gov. John P. Altgeld. In 1898 the regiment was sent to Cuba, where it stayed for nine months as United States volunteers. It returned to Chicago the following year, and was mustered out of federal service.

In the famous Texas "hike" summer only four men of the regiment dropped out in the strenuous 200 miles, a marked tribute to its effi-
